Task4 - DOD & DOR

1- Definition of Done:

1. Finishing all task requirements.
2. Write clean code.
3. Implemented task passes all required tests.
4. Implemented task is compatible for working on different operating systems and devices.
5. Code reviewed and documented.

2- Definition of Ready:

It describes the requirements that met the user story and is ready for development.

Some criteria in order to move user story to development:

1. User story is very clear and well-defined for the team.
2. The ability of team to demo the user story.
3. Performance criteria identified.
4. User story must be independent.
5. Consider the value added by user story.
6. User story must be measurable to allow tracking it's progress.
7. User story should be testable to allow tracking it's performance.
8. User story should fit in one sprint.